Families Needed to Host International Students for Thanksgiving

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The World Affairs Council of South Texas and Texas

A&M University-Corpus Christi are seeking families to host international students for Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday, Nov. 26.

“The University currently has more than 600 international students, most of them who have never experienced this All-American holiday,” said Maria Jaramillo-Couret, international relations officer at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. “They are eager to meet American families and be introduced to American culture.”

Last year Corpus Christi opened their doors to 20 international students, this year’s goal is to reach 40 students. If you would like to host an international student on this national day of Thanksgiving, call Maria Jaramillo-Couret at 361.825.3750; e-mail mariac@worldaffairstexas.com; or go to International Students/Thanksgiving.
