Educational Testing Service Executive to Speak on Education, Immigration and Workforce at World Affairs Council Luncheon

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Frank Gomez, strategic alliances and public affairs executive with the Educational Testing Service (ETS), will speak on the “Corpus Christi in the Eye of the Perfect Storm: Education, Immigration and the Workforce” during the World Affairs Council of South Texas luncheon Wednesday, Dec. 3, from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Congressman Solomon P. Ortiz International Center, 402 Harbor Drive.

Gomez oversees initiatives to identify and strengthen relations with organizations that are important to the ETS, the world’s leading educational assessment and research institution. His efforts also focus on increased outreach to the Latino community.
