A&M-Corpus Christi Yields 97 Percent Pass Rate from Texas Education Agency's State Board for Educator Certification

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The College of Education at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has announced a 97 percent final category passing rate for completion year 2007 on the Texas Examinations of Educator Standards (TExES.) The final category includes test takers from Sept. 1, 2005, through Dec. 31, 2007.

A total of 364 test takers seeking public school teacher or professional certification are reflected in the percentage.

The purpose of the TExES examinations is to ensure that each educator has the prerequisite content and professional knowledge necessary for a position in Texas public schools.
