Culture Fest 2008 Showcases Dances, Music and Ethnic Food

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Culture Fest 2008 will showcase performances that include Scottish, Middle Eastern and Indian dancing, ballet and twirling Saturday, Nov. 15, from 4-7 p.m. throughout the University Center at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

This year's festival, presented by the Islander Cultural Alliance and affiliate organizations, is themed "One World, One Mission, to Promote Unity." The event is free and open to the public. Students and community members will promote the need for more cultural awareness through interactive workshops and displays, music, ethnic food and performances.

Participating organizations include the African American Student Association, the Muslim Student Association, the India Student Association, the Chinese Student Association and others. Performers include Ballet Nacional, Corpus Christi Concert Ballet, Celtic Menagerie, Island Corp Auxiliary Performers and bagpipes player Chris Klecka.
