Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Inducts 23 Students into the Golden Key International Honour Society

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Chapter of the Golden Key International Honour Society inducted 23 members during a ceremony held Saturday, Nov. 22, at the University Center.

Golden Key, founded in November 1977, is the world's premier collegiate honor society, which recognizes and encourages scholastic achievement and excellence among college and university students from all academic disciplines. The Society has reached more than 365 chapters at colleges and universities in Australia, Canada, Malaysia, New Zealand, South Africa, the United Arab Emirates and the United States.

Undergraduate students with a 3.75 grade point average and graduate students with a 3.5 grade point average are invited to join Golden Key. Two years ago, the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Chapter was one of the first in a pilot study to invite graduate students to join. This year, the University chapter is one of the few chapters inviting sophomores to become members.

Students inducted at the ceremony were: Jeanette Adams-Vigil, Christine Bonnicksen, Ricardo Cerbin, Stacey Durham, Kami Dykes, Christine Ferris, Isabel Hemby, Tracy Henry-Michaud, Raquel Herranz, Mercedes Mata, Carole Mauch, Rose McPhail, Dionne Oliva, Emma Price, Shashi Raj, Shweta Rana, Teresa Razo, Gena Roberson, Gabriela Rutledge, Mary Catherine Smith, William Smith, Arna Sylvester and Cheryl Temple.
