‘Islander Safety Day’ at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Features Drunk-Driving Simulator and Presentations by Organizations

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas — Students of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will be provided with a wealth of information on making safe choices during “Islander Safety Day” Tuesday, Oct. 28, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the University Center, north terrace.

“Islander Safety Day” is presented by the University Police Department and I-ADAPT (Islanders Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Team). The fair will include a drunk-driving simulator that allows students to virtually drive a car. Presenting organizations include the Corpus Christi Police Department’s Auto Theft Task Force and Gun Safety Division, and the Environmental Health and Safety Office at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.
