New Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Logo Captures Ambiance and Energy of the ‘Island University’

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – University President Flavius Killebrew and longtime donor and benefactor Dusty Durrill will unveil the new Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi logo during a brief ceremony Wednesday, Oct. 29, at 10 a.m. in the Harte Research Institute for Gulf of Mexico Studies, Conference Room 127.

The University’s new graphic brand comes after several months of working with students, faculty, staff and alumni. Following the ceremony, the new graphic mark will be available for use.
