Groundbreaking Ceremony for New Alumni Welcome Center
Honors Longtime University Benefactor and 50-Year Alumnus

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Longtime benefactor, alumnus and local entrepreneur Woo Sung Lee will be honored Friday, April 24, at 11 a.m. during a groundbreaking ceremony for Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi’s new Alumni Welcome Center.

The ceremony will honor Lee and his family at the future center site, located near the intersection of Ocean Drive and Alameda Street. Lee will be presented with a proclamation naming him a “50-Year Distinguished Alumnus.”

Texas A&M-Corpus Christi’s new welcome center will be named after Lee and be called the Woo Sung Lee Alumni Welcome Center pending approval from The Texas A&M University System Board of Regents. Lee, a 1959 graduate of the University of Corpus Christi, has provided the resources to build the Woo Sung Lee Alumni Welcome Center on South Alameda Street. The facility will house the University’s alumni relations operation and several development functions.
