‘Navidad de los Niños’ Festival Offers Family Holiday Fun

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Children and their families will celebrate the holiday season during the “Navidad de los Niños” on Saturday, Dec. 5, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Antonio E. Garcia Arts & Education Center, 2021 Agnes St.

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi’s College of Education will host the Westside Business Association’s 26th annual celebration which draws more than 1,000 children and parents every year. Children may have their portraits taken with Santa and play games at various activity booths. Music will be provided by DJ Vargas. There will also be dance performances by Garcia Center’s Falcon Folklorico, the Hyper Squad hip-hop dance team and the Islander Dance Team. Other highlights include face painting, children’s activities and the chance to win an assortment of prizes.
