India Students Association to Host Indian Dessert Festival

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The India Students Association at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will host the Indian Dessert Festival Wednesday, Feb. 25, from 10 a.m. to noon in the University Center, Tejas Room A.

In keeping with the theme “Your Food Is Incomplete without a Dessert,” eight Indian desserts and two hot mixtures including tal chikki, kaju kasata, kesar penda, badam maisur and hot nadiyadi mixers will be available for tasting.

These desserts, most of which are made from grains, dry fruits, figs, ghee and vanilla, are significant to Indian culture and are often presented as gifts at weddings and festivals.
