Financial Aid Fair at A&M-Corpus Christi Offers Students Free Assistance in Preparing Federal Student Aid Applications

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Prospective college students who are seeking financial assistance for the 2009-2010 academic year can receive free help in preparing applications for federal student aid during the FAFSA Completion Workshop Saturday, March 28, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at University Center, Tejas Room 106 C.

This is the fifth consecutive year that the Office of Student Financial Assistance at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has helped prospective students who would like to attend any university complete their Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) forms.

Applicants must bring a completed 2008 income tax return, parents' and students' W-2 forms, FAFSA pin numbers and a benefit letter for Social Security.

For more information, call the Office of Student Financial Assistance at 361.825.2338.
