College of Education Dean Arthur Hernandez Appointed by Gov. Rick Perry to the Texas Diabetes Council

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Dr. Arthur E. Hernandez, dean of the College of Education at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, has been appointed by Gov. Rick Perry to serve on the Texas Diabetes Council.

Hernandez is one of four appointees who will serve through Feb. 1, 2015. The council assists in the development and implementation of a public awareness strategy focusing on diabetes and its complications.

Hernandez supervises academic, faculty and student affairs for the College of Education. He also oversees the Early Childhood Development Center, University Preparatory High School, Antonio E. Garcia Arts & Education Center, and the college's bachelors, masters, and doctoral programs.
