MFA Candidate Jennifer Arnold Debuts the Canvas Peel Technique, Creates Large Installations in ‘A Layered Space’

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The Department of Art at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi presents an opening reception for “A Layered Space,” an exhibition by Master of Fine Arts candidate, Jennifer Arnold, on Friday, Nov. 6, from 6-8 p.m. at the Islander Art Gallery, 4024 Weber Road in Hamlin Center.

The exhibition, which will be on display through Saturday, Nov. 21, debuts the “canvas peel,” Arnold’s innovative technique where photographs are printed onto canvas and then peeled away giving the images a unique translucency.

After printing, Arnold groups the images to create large wall installations. The series transforms the gallery into an extraordinary living environment.
