CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Dr. Awni Zebda, a professor in the Department of Accounting and Business Law at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, has received the Texas Society of CPAs' (TSCPA) Outstanding Accounting Educator Award for 2009.

Zebda was honored at an October ceremony in Austin, Texas, during the TSCPA Accounting Education Conference. The award recognizes educators who have demonstrated excellence in teaching and have distinguished themselves through active service to the accounting profession.

Since joining the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi faculty in 1994, Zebda has developed and taught several undergraduate and graduate courses. His classes emphasize the use of accounting information in decision making. In his courses, he uses different approaches including cases and team/group and emphasizes presentation, research, and critical thinking.

The College of Business at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). The accounting program has also achieved AACSB departmental accreditation.
