Texas A&M -Corpus Christi's Performing Arts Center Home to Corpus Christi Live! Concerts Beginning in November

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi President Flavius Killebrew and Sam Jenkin, president of Corpus Christi Live!, signed a Memorandum of Understanding on Oct. 5 designating the Performing Arts Center as the concert venue for the volunteer-directed, non-profit organization for the next five years.

Celebrating its 75th anniversary, Corpus Christi Live! begins its 2009-2010 season in November. All shows begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Performing Arts Center. Doors open at 7 p.m.

The 2009-2010 season includes:

Friday, Nov. 20: Buffalo Rome – These musicians seamlessly blend the sounds of 1970s West Coast country-roots rock and today's modern country.

Sunday, Feb. 21: Feelin' Groovy starring Jim Witter – Back by popular demand, Witter returns with his tribute to the music of Simon and Garfunkel.

Friday, March 5: Red Hot Hollywood – Versatile singers and dancers recreate magical movie memories by Gene Kelly, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, Julie Andrews and many others.

Monday, March 22: Rudolf Budginas – Piano virtuoso Rudolf Budginas brilliantly balances pop, jazz and classical works, and presents humorous asides in this family show.

Sunday, April 18: Daniel Rodriguez – The former New York City police officer was one of his department's designated anthem singers on Sept. 11, 2001. His heartfelt performances have stirred hearts across the nation.
