Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Inducts 78 Students Into the Golden Key International Honour Society

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Chapter of the Golden Key International Honour Society inducted 78 members during a ceremony held Oct. 24 at the University Center.

Tiffany Webb, associate director of U.S. University Relations, Region 7, for Golden Key International Honour Society, delivered the keynote address. Sophomores, juniors, seniors and graduate students with an overall 3.75 grade point average were invited to join Golden Key. Texas A&M-Corpus Christi chapter president is Emma Brenae Price.

Golden Key is an academic honor society which recognizes and encourages scholastic achievement and excellence among college and university students from all academic disciplines. The Society has more than 370 chapters at colleges and universities in Australia, Canada, Malaysia, New Zealand, South Africa, the United Arab Emirates and the United States.

The Society offers its members over $500,000 annually through numerous scholarship and award programs. Members are also connected to exclusive career opportunities and assistance through Golden Key's partnerships with major corporations and graduate programs. The Society provides campus and community service opportunities enabling personal growth and leadership development. The Society also collaborates with university faculty and administrators to develop and maintain high standards of education.

Students inducted at the ceremony were: Caitlin Marie Bailey, Roxanne Ira
