Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Chapter of Golden Key Honour Society Recognized at International Conference

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has been recognized by the Golden Key International Honour Society, the world's premier collegiate honor society, with nearly two million members and more than 375 chapters around the world.

At its 2009 International Conference in Orlando, Fla., Golden Key announced that the Island University has achieved a bronze chapter standing for the 2008-2009 academic year, which signifies that the Golden Key Chapter is on its way to achieving the highest reporting standard in the Society.

Dr. Suzzette Chopin, professor of biomedical sciences, is advisor to the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi chapter of Golden Key. She and student members actively promote the Honour Society's goal of recognizing outstanding academic achievement and connecting high-achieving individuals locally, regionally and globally with lifetime opportunity, reward and success.
