More Than 300 Area High School Students Expected to Attend SkillsUSA Conference at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Texas SkillsUSA will hold its opening ceremony for the 10th annual District 12 Conference at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi at 9:15 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 27, in the University Center, Lone Star Ballroom.

More than 300 Students from the Corpus Christi, Laredo, Eagle Pass, Mathis, Kingsville, Alice, Beeville, Robstown and Victoria ISDs will take part in the conference which facilitates trade and industrial education. Texas SkillsUSA, a non-profit youth organization which facilitates trade and industrial education, involves nearly 15,500 student and professional members who are enrolled in high school trade and industrial programs. Teachers benefit as well by enhancing their career and technology education programs, improving attitudes in the classroom, and gaining support from local businesses.

Texas SkillsUSA brings together educators, administrators, corporate America, labor organizations, trade associations and government in a coordinated effort to address the nation's need for a globally competitive, educated and skilled workforce.
