Student Groups and Organizations Participate in Full Dress Rehearsal for 'Islander Revue' Music and Dance Extravaganza

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Student groups and organizations will run through a variety of performances they have prepared for the “Islander Revue” music and dance extravaganza during a full dress rehearsal on Wednesday, Oct. 14, from 6-9 p.m. at the Performing Arts Center at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

The 10th annual talent show, which is sponsored by the University’s Student Foundation, is scheduled for Friday, Oct. 16, from 7-10 p.m. at the Performing Arts Center. Contestants will be judged on musical quality, creativity, choreography and entertainment value. Proceeds will fund student scholarships.

The lineup includes the Islander Dance Team, Middle Eastern Dance Club, Alpha Gamma Delta, Honors Student Association, Phi Delta Theta, Gamma Phi Beta, Delta Chi, Delta Delta Delta, Campus Activities Board, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Islander IndependANCE.
