Coastal Bend Flute Symposium Features Master Classes, Exhibit and Concert at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The flute studios at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi and at Texas A&M University-Kingsville will co-host a Coastal Bend Flute Symposium for all ages and all levels on Saturday, Sept. 26, on the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi campus.

The symposium begins with a master class led by Jason Blank, Haynes concert artist, from 10 a.m. to noon in the Center for the Arts, followed by a master class with featured flutist Jill Felber, professor of flute at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and principal flute with Opera Santa Barbara, from 1:30-4:30 p.m. A concert featuring Felber will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center.

Blank and Bobbi Prewitt from the Music and Arts Center of Houston will exhibit a wide variety of intermediate and professional flutes and piccolos from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Center for the Arts. The symposium is free and open to the public. For more information, call Dr. Diana Sipes at 361.825.3943.
