Students Receive Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Graduation Rings

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – More than 140 students from Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will cross the stage for the Official Ring Ceremony on Saturday, May 1, from 10-11 a.m. in the Performing Arts Center.

Students will receive their class rings from University President Flavius Killebrew. This ceremony marks the first time the event will be held in the spring. It also represents the largest number of participating students.

The Official Ring Ceremony, sponsored by the Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Alumni Association, will be attended by students and their families and friends.
