State Representative Todd Hunter to Deliver Keynote Address at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Fall 2010 Commencement

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – State Rep. Todd Hunter will address new Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi graduates during Fall Commencement ceremonies on Saturday, Dec. 18, at 10:30 a.m. in the American Bank Center arena.

In 2008 Hunter, who previously served in the Texas House from 1989-1997, was elected to represent District 32 which includes Aransas, San Patricio, and Calhoun Counties and part of Nueces County. He is currently chairman of the Committee on Judiciary and Civil Jurisprudence and serves on the Insurance and General Investigating and Ethics Committees.

In addition, Hunter was recently appointed to the House Select Committee on Transportation Funding. He is also co-chairman of the Committee on Redistricting and Judiciary and Civil Jurisprudence that is currently conducting joint public hearings on redistricting throughout the state. During his first tenure in the Texas House, Hunter served as chairman of the Civil Practices Committee and on the Appropriations Committee as the chairman of the Education Sub-Committee.

Hunter, who has practiced law for more than 30 years, earned his bachelor’s degree from the University of Kansas in 1975 and graduated from the Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law in 1978. He is a senior partner in the Corpus Christi law firm of Hunter & Handel, P.C.

Around 715 students from the University’s Colleges of Business, Education, Liberal Arts, Nursing and Health Sciences, and Science and Technology will walk across the stage to receive their diplomas. The University holds commencement exercises in May, August and December.

-A&M-Corpus Christi-