University’s Office of Community Outreach to Offer SAT, GRE, GMAT Preparation Courses through Educational Testing Consultants
Classes consist of six four-hour sessions on Saturdays from Jan. 29 to March 5

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The Office of Community Outreach at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will offer SAT, GRE, and GMAT test preparation courses on campus this spring. The courses offered through Educational Testing Consultants will consist of six four-hour sessions on Saturdays beginning on Jan. 29 and running through March 5.

The SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) is the admission test of choice for most universities. Quantitative subjects include comparisons, picking numbers, equations, exponents, fractions, percentages, averages, rates, ratios, proportions, geometry, and more. Verbal subjects include analogies, sentence completion and critical reading. The registration fee is $499.

The GRE (Graduate Record Examination), which is a requirement for admission to many graduate schools, measures verbal reasoning, quantitative reasoning, critical thinking, and analytical writing skills not related to any specific field of study. The GRE preparation class will be offered from 1-5 p.m. The registration fee is $699.

The GMAT (Graduate Management Admissions Test) is used by many business schools throughout the world to help evaluate applicants. The preparation course, which is designed to improve the applicant’s test scores and increase their chances of admission to graduate school, will be offered from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The registration fee is $799.
