Blue, Green and White Lights Illuminate Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Buildings along Ocean Drive during ‘Islander Lights’

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Campus buildings along Ocean Drive will be illuminated with blue, green and white holiday lights during Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi’s “Islander Lights” celebration on Friday, Dec. 3, from 5:30-7 p.m. at the Performing Arts Center plaza. The annual evening of music, games and activities for the family is free and open to the public.

Santa Claus will arrive on campus at 6 p.m. The lighting ceremony begins at 7 p.m. Children may bring a new unwrapped present for the Wishes and Dreams Toy Drive and have their photos taken with Santa Claus. The community may also brighten a child’s holiday by donating a new unwrapped toy from 5:30-7 p.m.

Before the festivities, the Islander Lights Fun Run and Walk (3-mile run and 1.5-mile walk) around the University will start at 5 p.m.

In case of rain, “Islander Lights” will be moved into the Performing Arts Center lobby.
