Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Celebrates Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting of the Woo Sung Lee Alumni Welcome Center

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will celebrate the grand opening of the Woo Sung Lee Alumni Welcome Center with a ribbon-cutting on Thursday, Feb. 4, at 10 a.m. at the Center, 6129 Ennis Joslin Road.

Following the ceremony, the public is invited to tour the facility located near the intersection of Ocean Drive and Alameda Street. Woo Sung Lee, a longtime benefactor, alumnus and local entrepreneur, and his family will be honored during the ceremony.

The 1959 graduate of the University of Corpus Christi generously provided the resources to build the Woo Sung Lee Alumni Welcome Center, which opened its doors in October 2009 and houses the University's alumni relations operation and several development functions.

After graduation from the University, Lee, a Korean international student, went into the restaurant business and turned his one fast-food establishment into a chain of highly-successful "Boat-N-Net" Restaurants.

There will be no on-site parking. Shuttle service to and from the ceremony will be provided at the Starfish parking lot (first entrance into the University).
