Iraq War Veteran to Speak on ‘Achieving Success Despite Obstacles’ as Part of Black History Month Celebration

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Army Col. Bernard Warrington, commander of Defense Distribution Center, Corpus Christi, will speak on “Achieving Success Despite Obstacles” on Wednesday, Feb. 10, at 11 a.m. in the University Center, Lone Star Ballroom at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

The program, one of several scheduled during the Black History Month celebration at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, is co-sponsored by the African American Cultural Society and the United Student Veterans Organization. The event is free and open to the public and will be followed by a meet and greet with Col. Warrington.

Col. Warrington’s command and troop assignments include a tour in Kuwait and assignments in Iraq during “Operation Iraqi Freedom I” and “Operation Iraqi Freedom IV.” His military awards and decorations include the Bronze Star with Oak Leaf Cluster, Meritorious Service Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters and the Army Commendation Medal with Four Oak Leaf Clusters. He is also a parachutist and Air Assault qualified.
