Philosophy Club at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi
Hosts Panel Discussion on the Effects of War in Afghanistan

CORPUS CHRIST, Texas – The Philosophy Club at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will hold a panel discussion on “Afghanistan: Is it Just a War” on Wednesday, Feb. 24, from 7-9:30 p.m. in the Center for Instruction, Room 113.

“Our intentions for this panel are to dispel the misconceptions and myths surrounding the United States’ presence in Afghanistan,” said Dr. Don Berkich, faculty advisor and associate professor in the College of Liberal Arts. “The discussion will focus on the attempts to spread democracy, just war theory, the future for troops in Afghanistan, and how this is affecting the United States and Afghanistan citizens.”

The five-member panel will include University professors Dr. Isabel Araiza, Dr. Stefan Sencerz, and Dr. Patrick Crowley; Azhar Zafar, Ph.D. student in education; and Lt. Col. Maricela Alvarado, professor of military science at the University of Texas-Pan American. For more information, call Dr. Don Berkich at ext. 3976.
