Musical Comedy Brings Charlie Brown and the Peanuts Characters to Life at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The University Theatre at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will present the family-friendly, musical comedy “You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown,” from Thursday, July 15, through Sunday, July 18, in the Performing Arts Center.

Performances are at 2 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Sunday; and at 7 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. The play is based on the comic strip “Peanuts” by Charles M. Schulz. During intermission and after the show, children are invited to meet the Peanuts gang in person.

Although considered a “good man” by his friends, Charlie Brown can’t seem to win the heart of the “little red-haired girl.” His friend, Lucy, can’t win the heart of her crush, the piano-playing Schroeder. As Snoopy and Linus daydream, the rest of the gang encounters kites, school, baseball and misunderstandings before they finally realize what makes them happy. The play is directed by Kelly Russell, associate professor of theatre, and Alison Frost, visiting professor of theatre.

Tickets are $10 for adults, $7.50 for children 10 and under, and $6.50 for groups of 10 or more. All proceeds benefit the University Theatre Scholarship Fund. Tickets may be purchased online at http://cla.tamucc.edu/theatre/. For more information, call the University Theatre box office at 361.825.5800. For group sales of 10 or more, call Olivia Ross at 361.825.3756.
