Award-Winning Poet and Essayist Marian Haddad to Conduct Workshops with High School Students during Authors Day

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Award-winning poet and essayist Marian Haddad will one of several writers conducting workshops with area high school students during the English Department’s annual Authors Day Program on Friday, March 26, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Bay Hall classrooms.

Haddad will run a workshop of Literary Circles with students from Miller, King and Moody high schools from 11-11:45 a.m. in Bay Hall, Rooms 111, 112, and 113. Haddad will also run a writing workshop from 12-12:45 p.m. in Bay Hall, Room 104.

Other workshops will be led by Dr. Chuck Etheridge, Tom Murphy, and Dr. Christina Kirklighter. There will also be an open mic poetry reading.

Haddad is the author of a collection of poems titled “Somewhere Between Mexico and a River Called Home.” She was recently nominated for the Pushcart Prize.
