Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Offers a Variety of Academic and Athletic Summer Camps for Area Youth

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas - Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi faculty and staff will hold day, evening and overnight summer camps for area youth beginning Monday, May 24. Camp dates and information are:

Monday, May 24, through Friday, May 28 – The Department of Music will hold its second Suzuki Camp for Suzuki Book 1 and II students ages 4-11 currently playing the violin, viola or cello from Monday, May 24, through Friday, May 28, from 4:30-6:45 p.m. in the Center for the Arts. The camp focuses on aural sensitivity and recognition so that children can learn to play the music they hear. Classes in group lessons, music appreciation, orchestra, and master class will be offered. At the end of the camp, students will give a concert to show their newly acquired skills, and will experience music-making with Texas A&M-Corpus Christi faculty and outstanding area music artists and educators. Registration deadline is Friday, May 21. The cost is $75 per child; $50 each additional child per family. The camp T-shirt is included. For more information, call Olivia Ross at 361.825.3756; or e-mail Olivia.ross@tamucc.edu.

Tuesday, June 1, through Friday, June 4 – The Department of Art will hold a summer camp for high school students from Tuesday, June 1, through Friday, June 4, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Center for the Arts. The camp led by University faculty and graduate students will provide participants an opportunity to create artwork in the various studios. The camp is free. Registration is limited to 15. For more information, call Joe Peña at 361.825.2386; or e-mail joe.pena@tamucc.edu.
