Children Pre-K through Sixth Grade to Perform Routines During Halftime of Islanders Women’s Basketball Game
Students to show off skills learned at third annual Cheer and Dance Clinic

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Children in pre-K through sixth grade will perform dance and cheer routines they learned at the third annual Dance and Cheer Clinic during halftime of the Islanders’ women’s basketball game against Stephen F. Austin on Saturday, Jan. 29, at the American Bank Center area. The game tips-off at 1 p.m. with halftime expected to begin around 1:45-2 p.m.

From 9 a.m. to noon, Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi’s Islanders Dance and Islander Cheer teams will work with the participants at the third annual Dance and Cheer Clinic in the Moody Sustainers Field House on campus.
