Corpus Christi, Texas – High school students enrolled in the “Camp on the Coast” Summer Theatre Workshop at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will participate in dress rehearsals for five theatre camp shows on Friday, July 1, in the Warren Theatre and Wilson Studio Theatre in the Center for the Arts.

Dress rehearsals and times are:
- 9-10 a.m. – “Godspell” in Warren Theatre
- 10-11 a.m. – “Korczak’s Children” in Warren Theatre
- 11 a.m. to noon – “I Remember Mama” in Warren Theatre
- 1:30-2:30 p.m. – “Strider” in the Wilson Studio Theatre
- 2:30-3:30 p.m. – “Great Expectations” in Wilson Studio Theatre

This year, 100 high school students from across Texas are enrolled in the two-week residential camp, which provides a highly intensive and creative theatre experience. Students perform one-act plays directed by five theatre educators, all of whom have won a state championship in the Texas UIL One-Act Play Competition. Participants also study acting, voice, and movement in morning classes taught by University theatre faculty.
