Theatre Department at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Presents
Thornton Wilder’s Comical Drama ‘The Skin of Our Teeth’

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The University Theatre at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will present Thornton Wilder’s Pulitzer Prize-winning play “The Skin of Our Teeth” from Tuesday, April 19, through Sunday, April 24, in the Warren Theatre in the Center for the Arts. Performances are at 8 p.m. with a 2 p.m. Sunday matinee.

Wilder’s critically acclaimed comedy drama tells the story of a 20th century American family—the issues in their daily lives, the joys experienced and their will to survive. The play recounts historical events such as the onset of the Ice Age, the start of Great Flood, and the end of the Napoleonic Wars.

The production combines modern theatrical experiments, timeless human themes and audience participation. Dr. Terry Lewis, professor and director of University Theatre, will direct the play performed by actors from the University Theatre Department.

Tickets are $10 for adults; $6.50 for students; and $5 for Islander students with their SandDollar$ ID card. Tickets can be purchased online at http://theatre.tamucc.edu/.
