Community Outreach Offering Entrance Exam Preparation Courses
Summer classes will help students study for GRE, GMAT, LSAT, SAT

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – The Office of Community Outreach at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will offer graduate school entrance exam test preparation courses this summer, and hold a four-day Summer Institute for students preparing to take the SAT for college admission.

The GRE (Graduate Record Examination) course will be offered from 6-9 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays from June 7 through June 30. The GRE, which is a requirement for admission to many graduate schools, measures verbal reasoning, quantitative reasoning, critical thinking and analytical writing skills not related to any specific field of study. The cost is $699.

The GMAT (Graduate Management Admissions Test) course will be offered from 6-9 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays from June 6 through June 29. The GMAT is used by many business schools throughout the world to help evaluate applicants. The preparation course is designed to improve the applicant’s test scores and increase their chances of admission to graduate school. The cost is $799.

The LSAT (Law School Admissions Test) will be offered from 1-5 p.m. on Sundays from July 10 through Aug. 14. The LSAT, which is administered by the Law School Admission Council, assesses reading comprehension, and logical and verbal reasoning. The Cost is $799.
