Islanders Take Spirited School Photo in Support of GenTX Day
Corpus Christi Mayor Joe Adame proclaims May 20 as GenTX Day for the City

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – University President Flavius Killebrew and fellow Islanders at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will show their school spirit during a group photo on Friday, May 20, at noon to celebrate Mayor Joe Adame’s proclamation of this day as GenTX Day for the city.

The photo, which includes students, faculty and staff, will be taken at the University Center east lawn. Mayor Adame encourages those in the community to wear their favorite college T-shirt and University colors.

Also on this day, The University’s Mobile Go Center will visit several area elementary schools in celebration of GenTX Day to get the word out about the value of a higher education.

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board developed the Generation TX initiative, a statewide commitment for creating a college-going and career-ready culture. Generation TX brings visibility throughout the state on the value of educating thousands of Texans.
