Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi
The Island University
6300 Ocean Drive, Corpus Christi, TX 78412 361.825.2420 FAX 361.825.2620

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DATE: May 10, 2011 (Revised on June 10, 2011)
CONTACT: Cassandra Hinojosa 361.825.2337; Steve Paschal 361.825.2336

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Offers Academic and Athletic Summer Camps to Area Youth Beginning June 1

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi faculty and staff will hold day, evening and overnight summer camps for area youth beginning on Wednesday, June 1. Camp dates and information are:

Wednesday, June 1, through Sunday, June 5 – The Department of Music and the Coastal Bend School for the Arts will hold the Coastal Bend String Camp for students under age 21 currently playing any bowed, string instrument (violin, viola, cello, and double bass) from Wednesday, June 1, through Friday, June 3, from 5-8 p.m.; and Saturday, June 4, through Sunday, June 5, from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the Center for the Arts. This camp is designed to develop ensemble string playing and general technical instruction to young musicians with at least one year of experience. Registration deadline is Monday, May 16. The cost is $50 per student. For more information, contact Olivia Ross at 361.825.3756; email Olivia.ross@tamucc.edu; or view camp application at http://cla.tamucc.edu/music/.

Saturday, June 4 – The Islanders men’s basketball program will hold its Shooting Camp for boys ages 7-17 on Saturday, June 4, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Moody Sustainers Field House. This intense instructional camp is for all campers who are interested in improving their shooting. The cost of the camp is $45. For more information, go to www.islandersbasketballcamp.com.

Monday, June 6 – The Islanders baseball staff will hold the High School Showcase Camp for boys in grades nine through 12 on Monday, June 6, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The camp will provide the coaching necessary for rapid improvement through fundamental drills and true game situations. Campers will receive personalized instruction on the development of their skills and their approaches to hitting, fielding, base-running, and pitching and other skills designed to help campers fulfill their potential on and off the baseball field. The cost is $100. The registration deadline is Saturday, June 4. For more information, call Adam Skonieczki at 607.280.6258; or e-mail islander.baseball@hotmail.com. Online registration is available at www.IslanderBaseballCamps.com.

-MORE-
Page 2, 2011 Summer Camps

Monday, June 6, through Thursday, June 9 – The Islanders Athletic Department will hold an Islanders women’s basketball camp for girls entering grades three through 12 from Monday, June 6, through Thursday, June 9 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Campers will learn skills from the Islanders coaching staff and current Islanders players. The cost is $130 per camper or $105 per camper with friend which includes a camp T-shirt and basketball. A $50 deposit is due by Tuesday, May 31. If the deadline is missed, the deposit is $140. For a camp application, call 361.825.3691; or go to www.goislanders.com.

Monday, June 6, through Friday, June 10 – The Department of Music will hold its Islander Band Camp for junior and high school students from Monday, June 6, through Thursday, June 9, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. in the Center for the Arts. An end-of-camp concert will be presented on Friday, June 10, at 5 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center. The camp is open to all junior and high school band students with at least one year’s experience on their instrument. Auditions for band placement will be held on the morning of the first day of camp. Students should bring audition music that best shows their skills and musicianship. Registration through Friday, May 20, is $310 for resident campers (covers room, meals and tuition) and $200 for commuter campers (camp tuition only). Commuters may bring their meals or purchase meals at University Center Commons. After Friday, May 20, commuter campers may register with a $20 late fee. For more information, contact Olivia Ross at 361.825.3756, e-mail Olivia.ross@tamucc.edu; or view camp application at http://cla.tamucc.edu/music/camps/bandcamp.html.

Monday, June 6, through Friday, June 10 – The Art Museum of South Texas will hold a “Here Comes the Sun” camp for children ages 5 to 12 (must have completed kindergarten in the 2010-2011 school year) from Monday, June 6, through Friday, June 10, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Art Museum, 1902 N. Shoreline Blvd. The camp features sun prints, silhouettes and lighting in photography. Campers will examine cultural myths of the sun’s creation, learn the Salutation of the Sun in yoga and explore the use of light in creating shadow puppets. The cost is $130 for members; $145 for non-members. Child care, before and after camp, is available for an additional fee. Children should bring their own lunch and snack; a microwave is not available. Camp T-shirts are available for purchase at time of registration. For more information, call 361.825.3504; e-mail artmuseum@tamucc.edu; or download a camp brochure at www.artmuseumofsouthtexas.org.

-MORE-

Monday, June 6, through Friday, June 17 – The Art Museum of South Texas will offer its Very Important Kid (VIK) Camp (session I), a low-cost arts camp for children ages 5-12, from Monday, June 6, through Friday, June 17, from 9 a.m. to noon and from noon to 3 p.m. at the Antonio E. Garcia Arts & Education Center, 2021 Agnes St. Children will design art objects from pinwheels to wind chimes that utilize wind; use found-objects to create handmade paper, pet rocks and temporary art; and explore music and movement and the role that air plays in both. The half-day VIK camp is supplemented in the afternoons with the “America Reads” program through the College of Education. The cost is $20 for half day; $40 for all day. Lunch will be provided by the CCISD Summer Lunch Program. Scholarships are available. Space is limited. For more information, call 361.882.7837.

Monday, June 6, through Friday, June 24 – Recreational Sports will hold an interactive Islander Rec Day Camp (Session I) for children ages 6-12 on weekdays from Monday, June 6, through Friday, June 24, from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Campers will experience many fun activities in a safe, supervised environment. The cost is $70 per child/per week; or $210 per child/per session. A maximum of 50 campers per week will be allowed. For more information, call L.R. Heffernan at 361.825.2313; or go to http://recsports.tamucc.edu.

Monday, June 6, through Friday, Aug. 12 – The Islanders men’s tennis program will hold the weekly Islanders Tennis Summer Day Camps from Monday, June 6, through Friday, Aug. 12, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Islanders Tennis Facility. These camps will highly emphasize technique, footwork, strategy, match play and fitness taught by NCAA Division I coaches. The cost for the camps is $175 for each weekly session, $500 for each monthly session or $1,100 for the entire summer session from June through August. For more information, call Steve Moore at 361.425.1546, Jason Holland at 361.510.1953 or Gonçalo Figueiredo at 361.232.1471. Interested

-MORE-
Tuesday, June 7, through Friday, June 10 – The Islanders baseball coaching staff will hold a skills camp for boys ages 4-14 from Tuesday, June 7, through Friday, June 10, from 9 a.m. to noon at Chapman Field. The camp is for beginners and experienced players. Participants will be introduced to the skills of every defensive position and hitting and team drills. The cost is $90. The registration deadline is Sunday, June 5. For more information, call Adam Skonieczki at 607.280.6258; e-mail islander.baseball@hotmail.com; or register online at www.IslanderBaseballCamps.com.

Saturday, June 11 – The Islanders men’s basketball program will hold its Big Man/Guard Camp for boys ages 7-17 on Saturday, June 11, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Moody Sustainers Field House. The camp will help campers learn the fundamentals of post and guard play with position specific drills to improve their game. The cost of the camp is $45. For more information, go to www.islandersbasketballcamp.com.

Monday, June 13, through Tuesday, June 14 – The Islanders softball program will host its Minnows Camp for girls ages 7-14 on Monday, June 13, from 9:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Tuesday, June 14, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Chapman Field. The cost is $185 per camper. For more information, contact Teresa Flores at 361.813.7217; or email teresa.flores@tamucc.edu. Participants can sign up online at www.IslanderSoftballCamps.com.

Monday, June 13, through Thursday, June 16 – The Islanders men’s basketball program will hold an Islanders Day Camp for boys ages 7-17 from Monday, June 13, through Thursday, June 16, from 8 a.m. to noon in the Moody Sustainers Field House. This camp will provide fundamental work in all areas of your game and includes station work, contests and 5-on-5 league play. The cost of the camp is $100. For more information, go to www.islandersbasketballcamp.com.

Monday, June 13, through Thursday, June 16 – The Islanders men’s basketball program will hold an Islanders 4-on-4 League Camp for boys in grades 5-8 from Monday, June 13, through Thursday, June 16, from 1-3 p.m. in the Moody Sustainers Field House. Registration begins each day at noon. Campers can enter as a team (5 players per team) or individual. Individuals not with a group will be placed on a team by our staff. The cost of the camp is $40 per player. For more information, go to www.islandersbasketballcamp.com.
Page 5, 2011 Summer Camps

Monday, June 13, through Thursday, June 16 – The Islanders baseball coaching staff will hold a competition camp for boys ages 4-14 from Monday, June 13, through Thursday, June 16, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Chapman Field. The camp for both beginners and experienced players is designed to increase game knowledge, improve a player's ability to participate, give the coaching staff an opportunity to instruct individual players on the skills it takes to be a better baseball player, and provide a full week of games and scrimmages. The cost is $175. The registration deadline is Saturday, June 11. For more information, call Adam Skonieczki at 607.280.6258; e-mail islander_baseball@hotmail.com; or register online at www.IslanderBaseballCamps.com.

Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 17 - The Department of Music will hold a Suzuki String Camp for Suzuki Book I and II students ages 4-11 currently playing the violin, viola or cello from Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 17, from 4-6:45 p.m. in the Center for the Arts. The camp focuses on aural sensitivity and recognition so that children can learn to play the music they hear. Classes in group lessons, music appreciation, music theory for string players, recorder class, and master class will be offered. At the end of the camp, students will give a final concert to show their newly acquired skills. Registration deadline is Friday, May 13. The cost is $75 per child; $50 each additional child per family. The camp T-shirt is included. For more information, contact Olivia Ross at 361.825.3756; or e-mail Olivia.ross@tamucc.edu; or view camp application at http://cla.tamucc.edu/music/camps/bandcamp.html.

Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 17 – The Art Museum of South Texas will hold a “Just Add Water” camp for children ages 5 to 12 (must have completed kindergarten in the 2010-2011 school year) from Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 17, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Art Museum, 1902 N. Shoreline Blvd. Young artists will use tempera, acrylic and watercolor to paint portraits, landscapes and abstract images. Through improvisation and creative movement, participants also will focus on how water moves, sounds and feels for entertaining short skits. The cost is $130 for members; $145 for non-members. Child care, before and after camp, is available for an additional fee. Children should bring their own lunch and snack; a microwave is not available. Camp T-shirts are available for purchase at time of registration. For more information, call 361.825.3504; e-mail artmuseum@tamucc.edu; or download a camp brochure at www.artmuseumofsouthtexas.org.

-MORE-
Page 6, 2011 Summer Camps

Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 17 – The Department of English will host the 22nd annual Young Authors Camp for middle school students in grades six through eight from Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 17, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Early Childhood Development Center. The camp provides student authors with opportunities to expand their interest in writing and to experience writing as a fun and creative opportunity for self-expression and communication. Campers will enjoy a variety of writing activities, including visits with poets and artists, and nature walks. Each author will receive camp material, a T-shirt, and a camp anthology. Registration is $140 through Wednesday, June 1, or $160 after that date. Scholarships are available for students who qualify for their school’s free or reduced lunch programs. For more information, contact Dr. Chuck Etheridge at 361.825.5755, or go to http://cla.tamucc.edu/english/writingcamp/index.html.

Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 24 – The Department of English will host the 22nd annual Young Authors Camp for elementary students in grades three through five from Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 24, 8:30-11:45 a.m. in the Early Childhood Development Center. The camp, which includes visits with poets and artists, and nature walks, provides student authors with opportunities to expand their interest in writing and to experience writing as a fun and creative opportunity for self-expression and communication. Each author will receive camp material, a T-shirt, and a camp anthology. Registration is $175 through Wednesday, June 1, or $195 after that date. Scholarships are available for students who qualify for their school’s free or reduced lunch programs. For more information, contact Dr. Chuck Etheridge at 361.825.5755; or go to http://cla.tamucc.edu/english/writingcamp/index.html.

Wednesday, June 15, through Thursday, June 16 – The Islanders softball program will host its Islanders Camp and Showcase for girls entering grades nine through 12 on Wednesday, June 15, from 9:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. and Thursday, June 16, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Chapman Field on the University campus. The cost is $225 per camper. For more information, contact Teresa Flores at 361.813.7217; or email teresa.flores@tamucc.edu; or sign up online at www.IslanderSoftballCamps.com.

-MORE-
Page 7, 2011 Summer Camps

Sunday, June 19, through Saturday, July 2 – The Department of Communication and Theatre will hold the “Camp on the Coast” summer theatre workshop for high school students seeking a highly intensive and creative theatre experience from Sunday, June 19, through Saturday, July 2. During the two-week residential camp, participants will rehearse and perform in a one-act play directed by one of five highly successful theatre educators. Students interested in performance will study acting, voice and movement in morning classes taught by University Theatre faculty. Technical theatre students will attend classes in design, participate in the creation of each production’s sets, lighting, and costumes, and serve as crew for the shows. Registration deadline is Thursday, May 19. The cost is $985; $750 for student commuters. For more information, contact Kelly Russell at Kelly.Russell@tamucc.edu; or go to http://cla.tamucc.edu/theatre/events/camp.html.

Monday, June 20, through Friday, June 24 – The Department of English will hold the second Writer’s Island Workshop for high school students in grades nine through 12 from Monday, June 20, through Friday, June 24, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Bay Hall. The workshop provides high school writers with opportunities to expand their interest in writing and to experience a professional style writer’s workshop. Each author will receive camp material and a T-shirt. The camp staff consists of University professors, high school teachers, and University students. Registration is $140 through Wednesday, June 1, or $160 after that date. Scholarships are available for students who qualify for their school’s free or reduced lunch programs. For more information, contact Dr. Chuck Etheridge at 361.825.5755, or go to http://cla.tamucc.edu/english/writingcamp/index.html.

Monday, June 20, through Friday, June 24 – The Art Museum of South Texas will hold a “Blowin’ in the Wind” camp for children ages 5 to 12 (must have completed kindergarten in the 2010-2011 school year) from Monday, June 20, through Friday, June 24, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Art Museum, 1902 N. Shoreline Blvd. From wind chimes to kites, young artists will use their creativity to design art objects that utilize the wind to function. Students will also explore music and movement and the role that air plays in both. The cost is $130 for members; $145 for non-members. Child care, before and after camp, is available for an additional fee. Children should bring their own lunch and snack; a microwave is not available. Camp T-shirts are available for purchase at time of registration. For more information, call 361.825.3504; e-mail artmuseum@tamucc.edu; or download a camp brochure at www.artmuseumofsouthtexas.org.

-MORE-
Page 8, 2011 Summer Camps

Monday, June 20, through Friday, July 1 – The Art Museum of South Texas will offer its Very Important Kid (VIK) Camp (session II), a low-cost arts camp for children ages 5-12, from Monday, June 20, through Friday, July 1, from 9 a.m. to noon and from noon to 3 p.m. at the Antonio E. Garcia Arts & Education Center, 2021 Agnes St. Children will create a variety of fine art and fun projects that celebrate the sun, including pierced sun-catchers, sun prints and silhouettes; use tempera, acrylics and watercolor to paint portraits and landscapes; and create shadow puppets and improvisational skits and movement related to the movement of water. Family and friends will be invited to an art exhibition, performance and reception on the last Friday of camp. The half-day VIK camp is supplemented in the afternoons with the “America Reads” program through the College of Education. The cost is $20 for half day; $40 for all day. Lunch will be provided by the CCISD Summer Lunch Program. Scholarships are available. Space is limited. For more information, call 361.882.7837.

Monday, June 27, through Friday, July 1 – The Engineering faculty will hold an “Introduction of High School Student to Renewable Energy,” an engineering summer camp for incoming high school juniors and seniors, from Monday, June 27, through Friday, July 1, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Science and Technology Building. The cost for the camp is $300 with scholarships available to cover tuition for students in surrounding areas. For more information, call 361.825.6025; or e-mail Korinne.Caruso@tamucc.edu.

Tuesday, July 5, through Friday, July 8 – Islanders volleyball will hold a middle school skills camp for girls entering sixth through eighth grade from Tuesday, July 5, through Friday, July 8, from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Moody Sustainers Field House. Campers will be evaluated and placed with other players of similar age and ability. Registration is $140 before Friday, June 24, or $155 after that date. For more information, contact Tony Graystone at 361.825.3232; e-mail Anthony.graystone@tamucc.edu; or go to www.IslanderVolleyballCamps.com.

Tuesday, July 5, through Friday, July 8 – Islanders volleyball will hold a skills camp for high school girls from Tuesday, July 5, through Friday, July 8, from 1:30-5 p.m. at the Moody

-MORE-
Page 9, 2011 Summer Camps

Sustainers Field House. Islanders coaching staff and players will teach sessions on individual skill training, transition skill training with other positions and competitive games. Campers will also interact with current Islanders student athletes and learn what it takes to become a college volleyball player. Registration is $140 before Friday, June 24, or $155 after that date. For more information, contact Tony Graystone at 361.825.3232; e-mail Anthony.graystone@tamucc.edu; or go to www.IslanderVolleyballCamps.com.

Monday, July 11, through Wednesday, July 13 – Islanders volleyball will hold a setter/libero camp for middle and high school students from Monday, July 11, through Wednesday, July 13, from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Moody Sustainers Field House. The camp will emphasize body position, footwork patterns, passing and digging techniques, platform control and serve receive. Additional training will include back row attacks, setting and jump serving. Registration is $125 before Friday, June 24, or $140 after that date. For more information, call Tony Graystone at 361.825.3232; e-mail Anthony.graystone@tamucc.edu; or go to www.IslanderVolleyballCamps.com.

Monday, July 11, through Wednesday, July 13 – Islanders volleyball will hold a hitter/blocker camp for middle and high school students from Monday, July 11, through Wednesday, July 13, from 1:30-5 p.m. at the Moody Sustainers Field House. The camp will emphasize the technique of the approach and arm swing, and the execution of play sets. Campers will improve arm swing, timing and approach mechanics, and work with setters to develop shots and learn to score more points. Registration is $125 before Friday, June 24, or $140 after that date. For more information, call Tony Graystone at 361.825.3232; e-mail Anthony.graystone@tamucc.edu; or go to www.IslanderVolleyballCamps.com.

Monday, July 11, through Thursday, July 14 – The Islanders baseball coaching staff will hold a skills camp for boys ages 4-14 from Tuesday, July 11, through Friday, July 14, from 9 a.m. to noon at Chapman Field. The camp is for beginners and experienced players. Participants will be introduced to the skills of every defensive position and hitting and team drills. The cost is $90. The registration deadline is Saturday, July 9. For more information, call Adam Skonieczki at 607.280.6258; e-mail islander.baseball@hotmail.com; or register online at

-MORE-
Monday, July 11, through Friday, July 15 – The Art Museum of South Texas will hold the “Young at Art” summer camp for children ages 2 to 5 from Monday, July 11, through Friday, July 15, at the Art Museum of South Texas, 1902 N. Shoreline Blvd. Five mini-camp sessions will take place throughout the week, each with its own special art project, featured story and creative drama activities. Sessions for ages 2-3 are held from 9-10:30 a.m. Sessions for ages 4-5 are held from 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday classes are only offered together.

- Monday, July 11, Playful Pots (part 1 of 3 clay classes): The class features ceramic pinch-pots/creative drama and movement.
- Tuesday, July 12, Draw-ma Rama: The class features drawing lines and shapes and storytelling and puppets.
- Wednesday, July 13, Crazy for Color (part 2 of 3 clay classes): The class features color wheel, glazing pinch pots and movement and music.
- Thursday, July 14, Double Trouble: The class features life-size body doubles and imagination stations.
- Friday, July 15, Paper Shapers (part 3 of 3 clay classes): The class features geometric shapes, collage and creative drama and movement.

The cost is $10 per session for Museum members; $20 for nonmembers. Sign up for the whole week and receive a set of Art Museum “Art Cards.” For more information, call 361.825.3504; or download a camp form at www.ArtMuseumofSouthTexas.org.

Monday, July 11, through Friday, July 22 – The Art Museum of South Texas will hold a “When Nature Calls” clay and sculpture camp for children ages 5 to 12 (must have completed kindergarten in the 2010-2011 school year) from Monday, July 11 through Friday, July 22, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Antonio E. Garcia Arts & Education Center, 2021 Agnes St. This class is for beginner to intermediate clay artists and primarily includes hand-building techniques. The camp has been expanded to include art projects such as handmade paper, temporary art and pet rocks, and participation in a short play. The cost is $260 for members; $290 for non-members. Child care, before and after camp, is available for an additional fee. Children should bring their own lunch and snack; a microwave is not available. Camp T-shirts are available for purchase at time of registration. For more information, call 361.825.3504; e-mail artmuseum@tamucc.edu; or download a camp brochure at www.artmuseumofsouthtexas.org.

-MORE-

Monday, July 11, through Friday, July 29 – Recreational Sports will hold an interactive Islander Rec Day Camp (Session II) for children ages 6-12 on weekdays from Monday, July 11, through Friday, July 29, from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Campers will experience fun activities in a safe, supervised environment. The cost is $70 per child/per week; or $210 per child/per session. A maximum of 50 campers per week will be allowed, so sign up early. For more information, call L.R. Heffernan at 361.825.2313; or go to http://recsports.tamucc.edu.

Thursday, July 14, through Sunday, July 17 – Islanders Cross Country Camp for middle school and high school boys and girls will be held from Thursday, July 14, at noon through Sunday, July 17, at noon on the University campus. The camp for both experienced and novice runners will teach the latest in running and training techniques, hydration, running footwear, analysis of form, pre-racing strategies and post-race evaluation. The cost is $300 for overnight campers; $150 for day campers with a $75 deposit by Thursday, July 7. The cost for overnight groups of five or more is $250. A $50 late fee will be charged for all entries received after Thursday, July 7. Registration includes a room for overnight campers, meals and a T-shirt. For more information, contact Shawn Flanagan at 361.825.3212; or e-mail shawn.flanagan@tamucc.edu.

Monday, July 18, through Thursday, July 21 – The Islanders baseball coaching staff will hold a competition camp for boys ages 4-14 from Monday, July 18, through Thursday, July 21, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Chapman Field. The camp for both beginners and experienced players is designed to increase game knowledge, improve a player's ability to participate, give the coaching staff an opportunity to instruct individual players on the skills it takes to be a better baseball player, and provide a full week of games and scrimmages. The cost is $175. The registration deadline is Saturday, July 16. For more information, call Adam Skonieczki at 607.280.6258; e-mail islander.baseball@hotmail.com; or register online at www.IslannderBaseballCamps.com.

Friday, July 22 – The Athletic Training Education Program will hold an educational day camp

-MORE-
Page 12, 2011 Summer Camps

for all students entering or currently in high school on Friday, July 22, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in Island Hall. The camp will emphasize skills and information pertaining to the allied healthcare profession of Athletic Training. Campers will engage in hands on activities, lectures, anatomy lessons and leadership/teambuilding activities. Registration is $60; $65 after Friday, July 1. For more information, call Mary Barnes at 361.825.2169.

Monday, July 25, through Friday, Aug. 5 – The Art Museum of South Texas will hold a “Going Underground” camp for children ages 5 to 12 (must have completed kindergarten in the 2010-2011 school year) who have experience in working with clay from Monday, July 25 through Friday, Aug. 5, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Antonio E. Garcia Arts & Education Center, 2021 Agnes St. Campers will spend more time using the potter’s wheel. Additional art projects will round out the latter end of the camp to allow all clay works to be fired in the kiln. Campers will perform an original short play on the final day. The cost is $260 for members; $290 for non-members. Child care, before and after camp, is available for an additional fee. Children should bring their own lunch and snack; a microwave is not available. Camp T-shirts are available for purchase at time of registration. For more information, call 361.825.3504; or e-mail artmuseum@tamucc.edu; or download a camp brochure at www.artmuseumofsouthtexas.org.

Thursday, July 28 – The Islanders baseball staff will hold the High School Showcase Camp for boys in grades nine through 12 on Thursday, July 28, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The camp will provide the coaching necessary for rapid improvement through fundamental drills and true game situations. Campers will receive personalized instruction on the development of their skills and their approaches to hitting, fielding, base-running, and pitching and other skills designed to help campers to fulfill their potential on and off the baseball field. The cost is $100. The registration deadline is Tuesday, July 26. For more information, call Adam Skonieczki at 607.280.6258; or e-mail islander.baseball@hotmail.com. Online registration is available at www.IslanderBaseballCamps.com.

Monday, Aug. 1, through Thursday, Aug. 4 – Islanders volleyball will hold two sessions of a new VolleyTotz camp for boys and girls ages 7-9 from Monday, Aug. 1, through Thursday, Aug. 4, from 10-11:15 a.m. and from noon to 1:15 p.m. in the Moody Sustainers Field House.

-MORE-
Page 13, 2011 Summer Camps

VolleyTotz, which teaches athletic skills with a focus on volleyball, was developed with early childhood specialists and features high energy activities that develop a child’s hand-eye coordination, spatial awareness, tracking skills, large motor skill development, muscle strength and a love for physical activity. Space is limited. The cost is $80, which includes a camp T-shirt. For more information, call Tony Graystone at 361.825.3232; e-mail Anthony.graystone@tamucc.edu; or go to www.IslanderVolleyballCamps.com.

-A&M-Corpus Christi-