Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Kinesiology Students to Host L.E.G.A.C.Y Run Oct. 22 Benefiting Family Outreach

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Students in the “Managing Leisure Resources” class at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi will host the second 10K/5K L.E.G.A.C.Y. Run on Saturday, Oct. 22, beginning at 7:30 a.m. at the Seahorse parking lot (first entrance) adjacent to the parking garage on the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi campus.

The fundraiser run for Family Outreach Corpus Christi is co-sponsored by the University’s Department of Kinesiology/K Club. Awards will be presented to the top three male and female runners in several categories.

L.E.G.A.C.Y. stands for Let’s Eliminate the Generational Abuse of our Children and Youth. Proceeds from the multi-level run will provide struggling families with free counseling, education, support groups, and other resources they need to recognize abusive patterns in the family and make changes.

Pre-registration must be completed by 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 19. Entry fees are $30 pre-registration/$35 on-site for the 10K run; $20 pre-registration/$25 on-site for the 5K run; and $10 pre-registration/$15 on-site for the one mile (children only) run.

T-shirts and packets may be picked up on Friday, Oct. 21, from noon to 8 p.m. at Family Outreach, 1444 Baldwin Blvd., or the day of the race from 6:30-7 a.m. For more information or to register, call Family Outreach at 361.888.6041; or go to www.familyoutreach-cc.org.
