I-ADAPT ‘Party House’ Will Address Consequences of Alcohol Abuse

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Students will witness the possible consequences of alcohol abuse and its social and legal ramifications at a simulated “Party House” on Tuesday, Sept. 27, from 7-9 p.m. in the University Center at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.

During the event, students will observe and take part in scenes depicting situations ranging from alcohol poisoning to date rape, then participate in an educational presentation and debriefing. At the conclusion, the students are invited to a “Safe Party” with free pizza, T-shirts and karaoke.

“Party House” is sponsored by I-ADAPT (Islander Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Team) and Camden Miramar student housing at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi as part of the University’s Enforcing Underage Drinking Laws project with the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission (TABC). The event is funded in part by the TABC and the U.S. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.
