

PREFACE

The Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Faculty Handbook provides information about rules and procedures that pertain to the faculty, as well as general information about the campus. The Faculty Handbook should be reviewed in conjunction with the System Policy and Regulation Manual. In any case where there may be conflict between campus rules and System policies or regulations, the System documents prevail.

Please refer to the following web sites for additional information on policies, regulations, rules, and procedures:
