Grammarly for Education is designed with security and institutional control in mind, ensuring that it aligns with educational institutions' data protection, privacy, and customization needs. The writing assistance you receive follows the admin preferences selected for the institution, such as those related to style rules, access to features, and brand tones.

- Grammarly for Education adheres to major data protection regulations such as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). This compliance ensures that the tool meets strict standards for handling and protecting student and faculty data.
- Grammarly allows institutions to customize privacy settings to meet their specific requirements. This means that schools and universities can control what data is shared with Grammarly and how it is used, ensuring that the use of the tool aligns with their own privacy policies and data protection standards.
- Grammarly for Education gives the account manager centralized control over the deployment and management of the tool across the campus through the admin panel. This allows educational institutions to monitor usage, manage user access, and ensure that the enabled features are aligned with the institution's positioning on AI usage.
