Faculty Attendance at University Commencement

TAMU-CC College of Education and Human Development
(Last revised July 1, 2020)

The College adheres to University Procedure 12.01.99.C0.03 (Responsibilities of Full-Time Faculty), which requires faculty members to attend university commencement.

Every academic year, faculty members are expected to attend either the December or the May commencement ceremony. Faculty members teaching in summer session II are expected to attend the August ceremony as well. Attending more than one commencement ceremony per year will count as an additional service activity.

See University Procedure 12.01.99.C0.03 (Responsibilities of Full-Time Faculty Members).
See University Procedure 12.99.99.C0.02 (Responsibilities of Part-Time Faculty Members).
