

Faculty Responsibilities

TAMU-CC College of Education and Human Development
(Last revised July 1, 2020)

Consistent with the University Procedure 12.01.99.CO.03 (Responsibilities of Faculty Members), COEHD Faculty, Staff, and Administration are committed to excellence in teaching, scholarship and creative activity, service, a concern for students, and the integrity of the institution. As such, all faculty are expected to meet general expectations for collegial engagement and maintaining high ethical standards for all professional teaching, research and services activities. Faculty members are responsible for taking initiative in promotion of their own professional development as teachers, scholars, and public servants.

COEHD specific expectations for performance in Teaching, Scholarship and Service are outlined and described in detail in in the COEHD handbook policies on Promotion & Tenure (3.06); Annual Performance Reviews of Full-time Faculty Members (3.04); COEHD Workload Policy (3.11).
