This handbook is intended to be read in conjunction with the Graduate Catalog: http://catalog.tamucc.edu/index.php and the College of Graduate Studies Handbook http://gradcollege.tamucc.edu/current_students/masters_students.html.
Greetings and Welcome!

I am Dr. Don Melrose, Chair of the Department of Kinesiology. I have the honor of overseeing the people that comprise this department and its programs. Congratulations for choosing our graduate program to further your education. We know that deciding to go to graduate school is a big decision. This is precisely why we are so pleased you have decided to trust us with your graduate experience. You have made an excellent choice. We have a tremendously talented faculty and first-rate facility. Our Sport Performance Program is recognized by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and has been independently ranked as a top-ten graduate program. This program offers you the ability to complete your work online, in person, or a little of both. In our program, you will be exposed to advanced knowledge and skills in your field, learn how to read, interpret and apply research, and perform actual research. As with any educational program, what you ultimately get from it is only as good as what you put into it. It is incumbent upon you to apply yourself, take advantage of the expertise of our faculty, utilize our facility, and be involved in educational opportunities that arise. We look forward to serving you and watching you succeed at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

SECTION III. LEARNING OUTCOMES

The Master's in Kinesiology with an emphasis in Sport and Exercise Science prepares professionals in the multi-faceted disciplines of athletic performance. These include biomechanics, exercise physiology, leadership/management of sport, motor performance, nutrition, assessment of sport performance, sport psychology, and strength & conditioning. The STEM classified program supports higher-level knowledge, specialized proficiencies and the development of independent creativity. Thesis and non-thesis options are offered.

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi's state-of-the-art Island Hall includes a biomechanics lab, motor development lab, exercise physiology lab, and athletic training center, providing excellent facilities and equipment for sport and exercise science research.

The Master's in Kinesiology is available as either an entirely online program or a hybrid face-to-face/online program. If you want to apply for an entirely online Kinesiology program, please select online Kinesiology in ApplyTexas. Please note, the online Kinesiology program will not issue F-1 visa.

Student Learning Outcomes
Students will:
