Types of Curriculum Proposals

Oct. 1

New Courses: new courses not in the system.

Major Revisions to Existing Courses: number changes, credit hour changes.

Minor Revisions of Existing Program: adding or deleting courses, program description changes, changes in student learning outcomes, admission changes, changes to course sequencing.

Minor Revision of a Minor or Certificate: adding or deleting courses, program description changes, changes in student learning outcomes, changes to course sequencing.

Expedited Review Items: course deletions, changes to course description, pre-reqs/co-reqs, prefix, course title, schedule type, contact hours, repeat status, changes to minor requirements.

Nov. 1

New Program Proposals: new program not in the system.

Major Revisions of Existing Program: name changes, credit hour changes, deletion of program, adding or deleting of a concentration, adding an online completion, adding fast track, changes to core curriculum program.

New or Major Revision of a Minor or Certificate: new minor or certificate not in the system, major revision: name changes, credit hour changes, deletion of program.

Expedited Review Items: course deletions, changes to course description, pre-reqs/co-reqs, prefix, course title, schedule type, contact hours, repeat status, changes to minor requirements.

Dec. 1

Minor Revisions to Existing Courses*: course deletions, changes to course description, pre-reqs/co-reqs, prefix, course title, schedule type, contact hours, repeat status.

Other: college front page, general content in the catalog.

*Note: Minor revisions to existing courses may qualify for expedited review at the discretion of the UCC Chair.