

Section 09.03

STATE HOLDS

State law prohibits the state from making payments to an individual or to a vendor if that individual or vendor:

- Owes a debt to the state
- Is delinquent in payment of certain taxes
- Is delinquent in repaying certain student loans
- Is delinquent in payment of certain types of child support

In the event that an individual or vendor is indebted to Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi and has failed to contact the University to make payment arrangements, that individual or vendor should be placed on state hold. This hold will prevent all payments from any State of Texas Agency to that individual or vendor until all amounts have been paid back to the University. In order to place an individual or vendor on state hold a Social Security Number or TINS number is required.
