Distance Fee Waiver

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1: What change was made to the distance fee waiver and why?

A1: After reviewing student fees, a broad range of services and opportunities are available to our distance education students that were not previously available. After the assessment it was determined that the waiver will only include the Health Services Fee effective Fall 2023.

Q2: As a distance education student, how can I connect with Islanders Athletics?

A2: The Intercollegiate athletics fee supports various initiatives that benefit all Islander students, including improved facilities and resources and enhanced campus spirit and pride. There are several ways to stay involved with Islanders Athletics as a distance education student:

- Tune in for televised games and join in the fun as an Islanders fan, watching from anywhere.
- Stay up to date with Islanders Athletics by enjoying live streamed and recorded athletics events.
- Follow your favorite Islanders teams on social media to connect with other Islanders fans!

Q3: Can distance education students participate in virtual fitness programs or wellness initiatives supported by the Recreational Sports fee?

A3: Absolutely! The Recreational Sports fee funds virtual fitness programs and wellness initiatives. These resources are available to all students, including distance learners, giving you the chance to engage in virtual workouts, access fitness classes, and participate in wellness activities offered by the university. These options support your physical and mental well-being, even from a distance.

Q4: What does the student center fee support?

A4: The student center fee supports the operations and maintenance of the University Center facilities and services on campus. Distance education students are welcome to visit the University Center in person and can also utilize many services virtually. The University Center is home to the offices of the Dean of Students, International Education, Student Activities, Career and Professional Development, Military and Veterans Services, the Campus Store, and others and are here to assist you virtually.

Q5: Who can I contact if I have additional questions?
