Rule Summary

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi (TAMU-CC) is required to remain neutral in partisan political activities as a state-supported institution of higher education. The university recognizes the constitutional rights and privileges of individual faculty, staff, and students concerning freedom of speech and participation in political events, subject to reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions. This rule implements state law and system policy governing political activities in facilities under the control of TAMU-CC.

Rule

1. ENDORSEMENT OF CANDIDATES AND OFFICEHOLDERS

   1.1. TAMU-CC must remain neutral in regard to any partisan political activity to maintain its integrity as a public institution. TAMU-CC may not endorse, support, promote, recommend, or otherwise indicate partisan political support for any candidate for an elected office, or for any current officeholder of such an office, nor appear to endorse any stance on constitutional amendments or ballot propositions or any pending legislation. Further, TAMU-CC expects all faculty, staff, and students to avoid any behavior that might reasonably be construed as an official university endorsement or support of political candidates or partisan political activities.

   1.2. University employees are free to express their personal opinions on any matter, so long as such opinions are not offered as the opinions of TAMU-CC or the Texas A&M University System. When expressing personal opinions, university employees shall inform their audience before and after presentations that the viewpoints expressed by the university employee are personal to the speaker and are not the official position of TAMU-CC or the Texas A&M University System. University employees will conform in every respect to laws and policies governing their employment.

2. DISCRIMINATION BASED ON POLITICAL VIEWPOINT
TAMU-CC will not discriminate against any organization or individual on the basis of political affiliation or doctrine, nor will it favor any political organization or doctrine over another.

3. USE OF UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

3.1. The use of TAMU-CC facilities by political candidates requires rental fees as well as charges for services utilized by the candidate in accordance with fee schedules and practices applicable to all non-university entities using university facilities and services. Candidates must adhere to university procedure 41.01.01.C0.01 Use of University Facilities. Requests that can be reasonably and safely accommodated without detracting from the purpose and operations of the university will be considered.

3.2. Should TAMU-CC property or facilities be approved for use by political candidates or parties, a sign with the words that follow must be provided by the event’s organizers to be displayed near the event.

"As a state-supported institution of higher education, Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi is required to remain neutral in partisan political activities. Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi does not endorse, recommend, or otherwise indicate partisan political support for any candidate for an elected office, or for any current office holder of such an office. The university also does not endorse any stance on constitutional amendments, ballot propositions, or pending legislation. The use of university facilities and property for this political campaign event is permitted pursuant to Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Rule 07.03.01.C1, Political Campaign Events in University Facilities."

4. SPONSORSHIP OF POLITICAL CAMPAIGN MEETINGS, EVENTS, OR SPEECHES BY RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS OR FACULTY/STAFF GROUPS

Student organizations that are currently recognized with the TAMU-CC Student Activities or Recreational Sports and faculty or staff groups that are recognized by TAMU-CC, other than faculty or staff groups officially organized and staffed by the university and which were created for the purpose of conducting official university business, may invite candidates for political office or current officeholders to speak at the group’s meetings in TAMU-CC facilities, provided the following conditions are met:

   a) In sponsoring a partisan political activity in TAMU-CC facilities, the student organization must notify Institutional Advancement before the event occurs. Institutional Advancement will notify the President’s Office and Marketing and Communications.

   b) In the interest of encouraging and maintaining the exchange of ideas, faculty members have the privilege to invite any guest they wish to speak in their class. If the nature of the guest’s visit relates to partisan political activity, the faculty... member must notify Institutional Advancement prior to the speaker’s visit. Institutional Advancement will notify the President’s Office and Marketing and Communications.

c) Adherence to university procedure 24.01.99.C0.01, Guest Speakers, Lecturers, and Entertainers, is expected.

d) The organization or group sponsoring a non-university speaker has the responsibility of making clear the fact that the organization, not the university, is extending the invitation to speak and that any views the speaker may express are their own and not necessarily those of the Texas A&M University System or TAMU-CC.

e) Student organizations may use standard promotional methods to promote political events held in TAMU-CC facilities.

5. VISITS BY CURRENT OFFICEHOLDERS

5.1. When the holder of a political office visits TAMU-CC, the officeholder shall be afforded all due respect and courtesies to which they are entitled. However, the officeholder may not engage in any partisan political activities, including campaigning for themselves or on behalf of others, unless they comply with all relevant conditions within this rule.

5.2. If the officeholder has been invited to a TAMU-CC facility by a sponsoring campus organization or department, that campus entity shall provide notification to Institutional Advancement generally two (2) weeks prior to the officeholder’s visit, and Institutional Advancement will notify the President’s Office and Marketing and Communications. Notification shall include the date and time of the planned visit, the purpose of the planned visit, the activities planned during the visit, and the impact of the planned visit on TAMU-CC.

6. USE OF TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-CORPUS CHRISTI SYMBOLS, INSIGNIA, AND OTHER IDENTIFYING MARKS

The use of any TAMU-CC symbol, insignia, or other identifiable mark in association with any partisan political activity, including campaigns by political candidates, is prohibited. See System Policy 09.02 Use of System Names and Indicia and university procedure 09.02.99.C0.02, University Name and Indicia Usage for more details.

7. DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

TAMU-CC reserves the right to require that a statement be made prior to the presentation of any speaker that the views expressed are not necessarily those of the institution or the sponsoring group.
