Responsibilities of Faculty Members

Procedure Summary

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi (TAMU-CC) is committed to excellence in teaching, librarianship, scholarship and creative activity, service, a concern for students, and the integrity of the institution. As such, all faculty, as appropriate to the nature of appointment, are expected to meet certain expectations. While these responsibilities provide the foundation of good teaching/librarianship, scholarship and creative activity, service, and professionalism, they do not alone qualify faculty for tenure, promotion, and/or renewal of an employment contract. This list of faculty expectations is not comprehensive and other responsibilities may be assigned by a supervisor.

Procedure

1. GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

   All faculty members at TAMU-CC are expected to:

   1.1. Engage in academic unit (e.g., college, library) and university activities in a collegial manner; that is, work cooperatively and professionally with colleagues and share in the responsibility of group endeavors that further the mission of the department, academic unit, and university.

   1.2. Maintain high ethical standards in all professional activities by practicing intellectual honesty and avoiding exploitation, harassment, or discriminatory treatment of students or colleagues.

   1.3. Avoid creating the impression that they are speaking on behalf of the department, academic unit, or university when speaking or acting as a private person.

   1.4. Take initiative in promoting their own professional development as teachers/librarians, scholars, and public servants.

   1.5. Complete all training required by the university and the Texas A&M University System by the due date. Required employee training will be assigned during the faculty member’s appointment period.
2. TEACHING EXPECTATIONS

2.1. Engage in teaching activity as required by academic unit guidelines and in accordance with their appointment and discipline.

2.2. Develop student learning outcomes and course content in accordance with university catalog course descriptions and in alignment with program learning outcomes.

2.3. Make known to students, in writing for each course, the course goals and requirements, nature of the course content, student learning outcomes and their relationship to the program learning outcomes, and methods of timely evaluation to be employed.

2.4. Meet classes as scheduled, in accordance with the official university schedule and the official course designation for instructional method.

2.5. Report changes to the format of courses as prescribed by the academic unit, as related to mode of delivery (i.e., distance learning).

2.6. For each course taught, utilize the university’s approved learning management system to post syllabi, instructor contact information, course grades (via the gradebook), and other requirements as stated in the academic unit’s handbook.

2.7. Be prepared to continue relevant teaching and learning activities in the event of a natural disaster or emergency in accordance with the academic unit’s academic continuity plan.

2.8. Meet standards for classroom management by ordering books on time, reporting grades on time, and reporting attendance as required.

2.9. Meet requirements for program assessment and the Texas A&M University System Common Learning Outcomes.

2.10. Instruct to meet course objectives and the student and program learning outcomes.

2.11. Inform students about the ability to participate in the university wide end-of-term student evaluation of courses.

2.12. Maintain competence in teaching field(s).

2.13. Be professional in conduct in the classroom and show respect for students, student confidentiality (in compliance with FERPA guidelines), and diversity of opinions.
2.14. Be available to students for consultation on course work during regular or electronic office hours in accordance with academic unit guidelines and policy.

2.15. Serve as an academic advisor and mentor according to academic unit guidelines.

2.16. Maintain a current electronic Curriculum Vitae through the approved university system.

2.17. Adhere to department and academic unit policies regarding course syllabi, outcomes, and content, including filing electronic course syllabi as required by the university.
