Procedure Summary

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has created the Faculty Senate as allowed by system policy 12.04, Academic Council/Faculty Senate. This procedure describes the role of the Faculty Senate at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

Procedure

By virtue of its constitution, the Faculty Senate is an advising and recommending body that serves to represent faculty in governance of the university. The Senate's functions include recommending policies (establishment of new policies, changes in existing policies, and interpretation of policies) and advising, reporting, and acting as a forum for discussion and debate of any issue vital to Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. With regard to academic programs that earn credit, Faculty Senate is one of several university bodies whose review is necessary (in accordance with university procedure 11.10.99.C0.01, Development of Academic Degree Programs) in order for that program or change in program to be forwarded to the president for action.

The composition of the Faculty Senate is governed by the constitution of the Faculty Senate.
