"Top Ten Management Survival Skills"
Sometimes it feels like that is all we do in management survive! But isn’t there more to it than that? In this webinar we will address 10 simple things leaders can do to not only survive but truly THRIVE in leadership! It can be done and in this webinar, you will learn 10 specific things you can do to be a better, more effective, and less stressed leader.

“Stepping into Leadership”
Whether you are new to the management game, or a seasoned professional leadership can be tricky to navigate. In this session we will look at some of the best practices for make the transition to leadership a success for you and your team.

“Advanced Leadership Skills: Accountability, Empowerment, and Values Based Decisions”
Moving from be a manager to truly embracing the role of leader requires more advanced leadership skills. In this session we will talk about ways to build a team that is empowered and accountable as well as, learn the importance of values-based decision making for you and your team.

“Everyone is so Different! Leading the 4 Personality Styles”
It is true, everyone is different, But not always as different as we might tend to think. There are four basic personality styles that have their own communication preferences and ways they respond best to leadership. In this session we will review what we have learned in previous sessions about the four personality styles and dig deeper into how best to lead them. When we understand people better, we can lead them better. And that always leads to better results for the whole team!

“Personality Styles: Deep Dive” (2 Hour Webinar)
(This was the one of the most requested topics from the first series!) In this two hour session we will dig deeper into understanding personality styles. We will complete a personal self assessment and learn more about our personal style and what makes us tick. We will uncover the secrets to understanding all four styles and how to work more effectively with each of them. This is a life skill that will help us both personally and professionally.

“Communicating Across Generations: Deep Dive” (2 Hour Webinar)
Let’s face it, there are generational differences out there. Sometimes this creates conflict and frustration among team members. In this session we will learn how to overcome the challenge and celebrate the best of all the generations! We will also learn a specific, solid way to handle any sticking point that arises between the generations going forward.
“The Top Ten Mistakes Even the Best Presenters Make…and How to Avoid Them”
The ability to stand up in front of a group and speak effectively is a required business skill today. It is also one of the top fears of adults in America! Whether you are leading a meeting, sharing a project update with a team, or giving a sales presentation everyone needs the basic skills to get their point across and to be more confident and comfortable when they do it. This session will have even the most novice speaker standing up and speaking successfully!

“Becoming a Creative Problem Solver: And Learn to Laugh While You Do it!”
If this last year has taught us anything, it is that we must learn to be more creative and innovative in how we problem solve and frankly, how we just plain do business. That’s the way it’s always been done just doesn’t cut it anymore. In this session we will learn the tricks and tips to tap into our own creativity as we train our brain to think outside the box and see the humor all around us!

“Time Management Tune Up!”
As the way we do business has evolved so must our time management skills! So, this is time management 2.0! We will look at ways to beat procrastination, prioritize effectively, control interruptions, and just be more productive!

“Exceptional Relationship Service: It’s In The Bag!”
This isn’t your Mama’s customer service! In today’s environment we see the evolution of service—we have moved from traditional customer service to relationship service. This is especially true when we don’t even call them customers– today in non-traditional service we call them students, guests, members, clients, and everything in between! The power of the relationship is the key to success! In this fun and interactive session, we will talk about how to make every person we interact with feel valued. Internal and external customers alike!

"Life Lessons Rocky Style!"
Who doesn’t love the Rocky movies? I have been a fan since I was a kid. And I firmly believe some of the most important lessons about life I learned from Rocky! In this session we will dig into personal growth and success—building your own personal brand— and how to live life Rocky Style!
